Victory Bible College

I just arrived in the United States from Ethiopia on Sunday afternoon. It was such a welcoming sight to see Cindy after my four week journey to the horn of Africa for the first time.

The size of Ethiopia is that of Texas, California and New Jersey combined.

The people of Ethiopia are warm and friendly. Uniquely they are very diverse in their physical characteristics.

The Country is steeped in its religious history making the need great for more trained laborers in ministry and evangelism.

Traditional churches with a form of Godliness but void of life and power have little to offer people in the troubled world in which we live.

I was teaching at Victory Bible College that offers a four year degree program. I was responsible for teaching first, second and third year students.

The potential of these students is tremendous. I recently read a statistic that I am still impressed by. The average person will influence ten thousand people over the span of their life time. That is amazing in itself but we must realize that these students are not going to be average. These men and women are aspiring to be leaders in the church. The scripture tells us this is an honorable aspiration.

Because they will be leading congregations and ministries there is the potential of conservatively impacting well over a million people just through this one group of students alone.

Your partnership in training the next generation of ministry is making an impact in the world.

Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that abounds to your account. Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus (in the mail) the things sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God. And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

My final international trip for this year is Zambia.

I have been honored to be asked to return and to teach during the final fourth term and then be the commencement speaker at the graduation ceremony on the twenty ninth of November.

I have learned that what ever God calls us to accomplish we are not able to do it ourselves. Cindy and I appreciate your partnership in this work.

My role in effectively fulfilling the Lord's commission is through the training up leaders who are secure in their God given identity and purpose.

As always I covet your prayer and am so thankful for your financial partnership that makes the impossible possible. Together we are investing in the lives of the next generation of Pastors and leaders in the Zambian church.
