

GOSPEL TRAINING INTERNATIONAL

JULY 2015

Bangkok the administrative center, full of palaces and temples, the capital of Thailand 14 million people.

Khorat Campus Exams

At the conclusion of my subject, the students are required to take the exam. I appreciate exams as opportunities to determine how effective my teaching has been. Naturally, we understand that the real test comes to the application of the truth in real world settings.

Thankfully the class did well on the exam and we expecting greater things to come as these students gain confidence in life and ministry.

Khorat is a city of approximately 2 million people North East of Bangkok.

✧ The Power of the Gospel ✧

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek.”

brings clarity to traditions and incorrect doctrine.

The impact that these students will have in their respective culture groups has great potential.

As a result of a relatively strong economy Thailand attracts people from all over the region for business and educational opportunities.

I also spoke at a Burmese church in Bangkok that was made up of migrant workers from Myanmar.

During my first ministry trip to the nation of Thailand I was able to teach two subjects at two different locations, Bangkok and Khorat. I was surprised to discover the diversity of nationalities in the classes of both Campuses.

The subjects I taught were “Redemptive Realities” and Christ the Healer.” Both of these are important foundational truths for Christian life and ministry skills.

The diversity of the students was not limited to culture but a variety of Christian denominations were also represented.

It was a blessing to see the unity that solid Biblical instruction inspires. When the light of truth is shown it

Return to Myanmar

And when they had preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith."

Acts 14:21,22

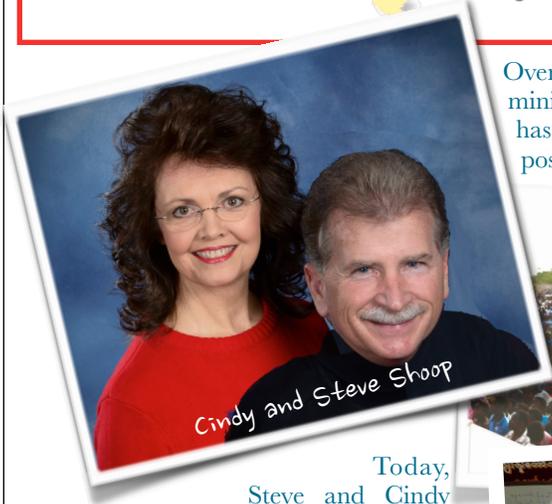

I am currently preparing to return to Myanmar for a special seminar that is designed to strengthen and encourage graduates of the Bible college as well as other Christian ministers who are working with in the country.

Myanmar is technically a closed country to the gospel. Although the length of time I will be in the country will be relatively short, I expect to have a profound impact with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Please pray for this trip regarding;
