

The second half of my trip I returned to the Mumbai campus, teaching on the Doctrine of Righteousness. The Mumbai campus is a frequent stop for me as it is the gateway to India and a good place to conclude the journey and depart for the United States. Additionally, I always enjoy my time with Bro. Kevin Castro and family. Kevin was a fellow classmate when I attended Bible college. Although I did not know him while we were in school together, he has become a great friend and fellow worker in the gospel. We have a lot of common ground and always enjoy rich fellowship together.

I often say that as a missionary I am blessed more than many because the scripture tells us that we are blessed coming and going. As an itinerate missionary this is part of what we do, come and go.....a lot! It doesn't hold any glamor for those of us who do it, but it simply is what we are called and purposed to do.

"Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.!"

Deuteronomy 28:6

It is not easy to make the departure from home. But in the context of what Jesus has done for us, the obedience to this calling is so worth the short term of inconveniences that we experience. The investment we are making into these individuals will bear fruit that remains eternally. In the paths of this small group of students in Mumbai there are many who will come to experience the person of Jesus. India has become the most populated nation on the planet and the harvest is ready to be brought in.

Together we are reaching the four corners of the earth with the light of the gospel!

PLEASE CONSIDER PARTNERSHIP WITH US IN THE POWER OF GOD'S PURPOSE!
